STRICTLY A MAN'S COLUMN
With Our $1.15 Shirts Given First Place

We give them first place because they deserve it—we know it, and you will say so too after you have once seen them. We could not buy these shirts at this minute, and afford to sell them for less than $1.50—and here's something to remember—that in these days, today's value is tomorrow's price.

THESE ARE THE WELL KNOWN "YORKE"
AND "DE LUXE" SHIRTS

We can offer you either those with laundered or with the soft French cuffs so much used in the warmer weather, and the materials are good French percales and madras. Buy now—the values are too good to pass by.

CONGRESS RESIGNED TO HOT WEATHER SESSION. New Legislation Promises at Least a Month or Six Weeks More of Work.

Washington, June 10.—Reassigned to another hot weather session, congress plans this week to dispose finally of important war measures and to begin consideration of new legislation promising at least a month or six weeks more of work.

Before the week ends it is hoped to send the delayed war budget and espionage bills to President Wilson. In the meantime the senate finance committee will continue revising the war tax bill, expecting to have it ready for the house in the first of next week. On the house side, discussion of the river and harbor bill will be resumed tomorrow and the agriculture committee will complete its draft of the food control bill, to be submitted to the middle of the week.

The railroad bill, giving the president authority to order preferential handling of food and other necessities, is meeting opposition from a few senators, but its passage without delay is generally expected. If it is disposed of tomorrow, the bill will be sent to the house.
